

CREATING SOCIAL AND SUPPORT OPPORTUNITIES FOR ADULTS ON THE AUTISM SPECTRUM

While there is increasingly more support in the community for children impacted by autism conditions, there is very little available for adults. The Autism Community Network (ACN) wants to work with people who identify as being on the spectrum to help bring about more options.

Please provide us with responses to any of the questions below so as we may better represent your views as a member of the community identifying as being on the autism spectrum.

Q1. What have you found to be the biggest misconceptions about those on the spectrum?

Q2. What are the biggest day-to-day challenges you face?

Q3. What services have you found to be helpful in your community?

Q4. Which services have you found that need improvement/are ineffective?

Q5. What are your biggest concerns for the future?

Q6. What services do you think would be beneficial for individuals with autism in the community?

Q7. What tools do you think would be effective in the transition from child to adult life of an individual with autism?

Q8. Which challenges, if any, do you think need more attention within the autism community (communication, social, finding jobs, etc)?

Q9. Do you think group work or one-on-one meetings are more effective in supporting someone with autism?

Q10. Are there certain times of year (holidays, seasons, etc) that you find more challenging?

Q11. Do you feel satisfied with the resources that are available to help you with your career path? If not, what would you like to see?

Q12. Do you feel satisfied with the resources that are available to help you socially? If not, what would you like to see?

Q13. What have been the biggest challenges for you in transitioning from adolescent to adult life?

Q14. What do you feel are your strengths?

Q15. What do you feel are your weaknesses or things you need to work on?

Q16. What have you found to be your biggest challenges in the working world?

Q17. What have you found to be your biggest challenges socially?

Q18. What types of changes would you like to see in your life, if any?

Q19. What are you looking for in the Adult Social Club?

Q20. What does an adult social club mean to you?

Q21. What are some of your hobbies and interests?

Q22. What activities would you like to participate in through adult social club?

Q23. What are your hopes for your future?