

Teaching strategy: Using comic strip conversations, answer questions about an event.

Comic strip conversation can be used to introduce and develop the concepts of thinking, feeling and speaking using comic strip characters and conversation. You can ask:

- What did the person say?/ What did you say?
- What might the person have been thinking?/ What were you thinking?
- How do you think the person felt?/ How did you feel?

