

Teaching strategy: Using a range of visual supports, teach Grace (and her peers) voice volume for appropriate situations.

---

Many students with an ASD have difficulty modulating their voice volume appropriately.

Strategies can include:

- ▶ Make explicit when it is appropriate to be loud and necessary to be soft
- ▶ Use arrows for louder and softer
- ▶ Develop a personal code as a gestural reminder
- ▶ Create a class activity volume control

